

2022 WORLD ALL-STAR JOCKEYS

The World All-Star Jockeys (WASJ) is an international event launched by the Japan Racing Association. Initially established in 1987 under the name “the World Super Jockeys Series,” it has welcomed more than 240 top-caliber jockeys from Europe, North America, South America, Oceania and Asia. Renamed the World All-Star Jockeys as a summer event at Sapporo Racecourse in Hokkaido in 2015, a team competition was added to the regular individual contest in which the overseas and NAR jockeys’ “Team WAS (World All-Star)” compete against “Team JRA” to attain the most points as a team. It will be held this summer for the first time in three years after being cancelled twice due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The first two of the four-race series will be conducted on August 27th (Sat), while the third and fourth will be held the following day.

Following his career-high third with 162 wins last year, he is in fourth place with 79 wins as of July 31, which includes four G3 titles—the Prix de la Porte Maillot, the Prix du Lys, the Prix de Barbeville and the Prix la Force. Born in Caen, northwestern France, he accompanied his mother to the racetrack where she worked as a young boy and began to aspire to become a jockey when he was five years old. Soon after he started riding ponies, he met trainer Stephane Wattel of Deauville and began helping him with stable work, which led him to become an official apprentice at the stable at the age of 14. Making his debut as a rider in 2009, he steadily accumulated victories, capturing 36 wins in 2010, 34 in 2011 despite a fall injury, and 30 wins in 2012.

He emerged to 10th on the leaderboard with 77 wins in 2013 and has maintained his position among the top 12 for the last 10 years. He registered his first group-race victory in the G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot at Sommerabend in 2014 and has won group-race titles every year since 2016. He landed his long-awaited first G1 win in the 2019 Criterium de Saint-Cloud with Mkfancy in his 11th year as a jockey.

He claimed triple-digit wins for the first time in 2020 with 108 wins and rode Colosseo the Poule d'Essai des Poulains and finished second to subsequent Cartier Horse of the Year, St Mark's Basilica last year. He also finished third in the 2019 Grosser Preis von Bayern in Germany and second in the 2021 Deutsches Derby. He has ridden in Qatar for three years during the winter season between 2017 and 2019 where he marked 73 wins including the 2019 Dukhan Sprint title.

His first major victory came in the 2018 G2 Lillie Langtry Stakes with Pilaster, followed by the G3 Albany Stakes with Daahyeh at Royal Ascot in 2019 during which he rode his first classic race, the 1000 Guineas in May—he finished third with Qabala while his father finished 12th in the same race. David also honed his riding skills in America that year where he registered his first win in the U.S. at Laurel Park.

After obtaining his jockey's license the next year, he scored his first win at River Downs Racetrack, the first of twenty he landed that season.

Gaining recognition at Fair Grounds and Arlington Park, James began to collect more than 100 wins annually since 2004 when he marked his first grade-race win in the G3 Arlington Breeders' Cup Oaks. He has been consistent in registering graded wins for 16 consecutive years since 2007 including his first title at the highest level in the 2009 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Stakes with Hot Cha Cha, who now stands as a broodmare in Japan.

Following his 1,000th win marked in 2010, he rode his 2,000th winner in the 2015 G2 New Orleans Handicap at Fair Grounds. His G1 triumphs also include the Ashland Stakes (Karlov Vary) and the Jenny Wiley Stakes (Daisy Devine) in 2012, the Del Mar Oaks (Sharla Rae) in 2015 and the Mr. D. Stakes (Two Emmys) in 2021. James reached his personal best with 238 wins in 2014 which placed him ninth in the jockey standings (races won) and was ranked 23rd in earnings in both 2012 and 2021. The young and upcoming rider Takeshi Yokoyama is currently placed third in the national rankings with 63 wins at the end of June. Should he keep up the good pace, there is little doubt that he will better his personal record of 104 annual wins scored last season. The G2 Tulip Sho with Namur is his only graded win this year but he has registered a third with the filly in the G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) and another third in the G1 Victoria Mile on Resistencia. The 23-year-old will make his first World All-Star Jockeys series appearance as the leading jockey of Eastern Japan.

Born in a renowned racing family beginning with his grandfather and former jockey Tomio, as well as father Norihiro and elder brother Kazuo, who are both active jockeys, Takeshi began riding at the age of ten and enrolled in the JRA Horse Racing School in 2014. He became apprentice to trainer Nobuhiro Suzuki and made his racing debut in March of 2017. He claimed his first win in his 42nd start and collected a total of 13 wins in his debut season.

Takeshi steadily compiled more wins annually, 35 in 2018 and 54 in 2019, finished 15th in his first G1 event, the Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby), in 2019 and reached a milestone of 100 career wins at the end of that season. In 2020, Takeshi claimed his first graded title in the G2 Flora Stakes on Win Marilyn and became the youngest jockey to top the Eastern Japan jockey rankings with 94 wins (6th nationally).

His big breakthrough came the following season. After marking his 200th career win in January, he scored his first G1 triumph in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) with Efforia and, although missing the Derby title by a nose margin, captured two more G1 titles with the eventual 2021 Horse of the Year—the Tenno Sho (Autumn) and the year-end “Grand Prix” Arima Kinen. Two additional G1 wins, the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) with Titleholder and the Hopeful Stakes with Killer Ability, tied him with Christophe Lemaire in notching a total of five G1 victories that season. Registering his 300th career win on the last day of the 2021 season, he capped off his most successful campaign yet with 104 wins, reaching the three-digit figure for the first time in a single season and was ranked first in the Eastern division and fifth in the national standings.

'22 Season Record	: 303 mounts, 80 wins / ¥ 2,149,266,100
Career Record	: 11,356 mounts, 1,760 wins
Recent Career Highlights	: '22 NHK Mile Cup (G1, Danon Scorpion) '22 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas, G1, Stars on Earth)
Participation in the WASJ	: 5th

Yuga Kawada enjoyed a remarkable season in 2021, during which he rode Loves Only You to two overseas G1 victories, one of which made him the first Japanese jockey to claim a Breeders' Cup title. He continues to produce outstanding results this season as well, presiding on top of the JRA national rankings in wins, earnings and striking rate. He registered his 1,700th career win in JRA this January and added two JRA-G1 titles—the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) with Stars on Earth and the NHK Mile Cup with Danon Scorpion—as well as the Kawasaki Kinen title with Chuwa Wizard in NAR racing. The 36-year-old will also aim to defend his champion title in the coming World All-Star Jockeys.

Born into a racing family—his father and uncle are jockeys-turned-trainers and his grandfather was a trainer at Saga Racecourse (NAR)—Yuga learned to ride at an early age and made his debut in March 2004. He registered his first win two weeks later at Hanshin Racecourse and concluded his debut year with 16 wins. In the following years, he gradually accumulated more wins and landed his first graded title in the Kokura Daishoten (G3) in 2006.

His big break came in 2008 when he won his first G1 and classic title with Captain Thule in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) and concluded the season with 73 wins including six grade-race victories. He rose to ninth on the leaderboard with 83 wins in 2010 and then claimed triple-digit wins for the first time the following year, placing third with 109 wins. He has ranked consistently in the top seven since then, reaching as high as second four times in 2013, 2019, 2020 and 2021.

His other classic titles include the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) with Big Week in 2010, the Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) with Gentildonna in 2012, the Oka Sho with Harp Star in 2014 and the Tokyo Yushun with Makahiki in 2016 when he became only the eighth jockey in history to claim all five classic races for three-year-old colts and fillies. His other G1 victories include the Yasuda Kinen (Maurice [2015], Satono Aladdin [2017], Danon Kingly [2021]), the Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes (Danon Premium [2017], Grenadier Guards [2020]), the Takamatsunomiya Kinen (Fine Needle [2018], Danon Smash [2021]), the Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Lachesis [2014]), the Takarazuka Kinen (Lovely Day [2015]), the Sprinters Stakes (Fine Needle [2018]), the Champions Cup (Chrysoberyl [2019]), the Hopeful Stakes (Danon the Kid [2020], and the Osaka Hai (Lei Papale [2021]).

Yoshitomi Shibata

Date of Birth	: July 30, 1966
'22 Season Record	: 13 mounts / ¥ 7,020,000
Career Record	: 21,698 mounts, 2,314 wins
Recent Career Highlights	: '21 Leopard Stakes (G3, Meisho Murakumo) '20 Aichi Hai (G3, Denko Ange) '19 Fukushima Himba Stakes (G3, Denko Ange)
Participation in the WASJ	: 9th

Yoshitomi Shibata became the first active jockey to receive the Medal of Honor with Yellow Ribbon awarded by the Japanese government for his diligence as a JRA jockey and contribution to the development and promotion of the horse racing industry. The veteran jockey, who had been away from riding since December last year due to an aggravated cervical disc herniation, made his comeback in May and was selected as an All-Star Jockey representing JRA for his historic achievement this year. He participated in the World Super Jockeys Series eight times, the last being in 2012 and twice in which he finished the overall champion in 1999 and 2003.

A member of the inaugural class of JRA's Horse Racing School established in 1982, Yoshitomi rode his first winner a month after his debut in March 1985 and scored his first grade-race victory in the 1988 Nakayama Himba Stakes (G3, Soshin Hoju). His first G1 title was in the Yasuda Kinen with Yamanin Zephyr in 1993. He maintained his position within the top 10 jockeys for 12 years between 1993 and 2006 (excluding 2000), during which he was ranked second between 2001 and 2004 and reached his personal best in 2004 with 145 wins.

His nine JRA-G1 titles include the Tenno Sho (Autumn) (1993 Yamanin Zephyr, 1998 Offside Trap), the NHK Mile Cup (1996 Taiki Fortune), the Takamatsunomiya Kinen (2000 King Halo, 2006 Orewa Matteruze), the Takarazuka Kinen (2010 Nakayama Festa), the Queen Elizabeth II Commemorative Cup (2012 Rainbow Dahlia) and the Yasuda Kinen (2014 Just a Way). Major wins in NAR races include the 1994 Teio Sho, the 2003 JBC Sprint and the 2004 Japan Dirt Derby.

Overcoming a surgery to treat a lumbar disc herniation in 2009, the veteran jockey continues to earn the trust of horsemen and fellow jockeys with his professionalism and fair play that led to his being elected chairman of JRA's jockeys association between 2005 and 2010. Shibata, who reached a milestone of 1,000 JRA wins in 2001 and 2,000 wins in 2011, became only the sixth jockey in JRA history to reach 2,300 wins in March last year. Five months after his historic feat, he became the oldest jockey at 55 to win a graded title when claiming his 96th JRA grade-race victory in the Leopard Stakes with Meisho Murakumo.

Yuichi Fukunaga

Date of Birth	: December 9, 1976
'22 Season Record	: 285 mounts, 46 wins / ¥ 1,111,219,000
Career Record	: 19,065 mounts, 2,562 wins
Recent Career Highlights	: '22 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas, G1, Geoglyph) '22 February Stakes (G1, Cafe Pharoah)
Participation in the WASJ	: 10th

Two-time JRA champion jockey Yuichi Fukunaga claimed this year's G1 February Stakes on Cafe Pharoah two weeks after he made his comeback from a broken collar-bone sustained in a fall in Hong Kong last December. He went on to register his second Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas, G1) victory with Geoglyph as well as NAR's Kanto Oaks on Grand Bridge and, as of the end of June, he stands seventh with 45 wins (JRA races alone) on the national leaderboard. Fukunaga was chosen to participate in this year's World All-Star Jockeys based on his outstanding performances with Triple Crown winner Contrail in 2020 when the WASJ was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. He hopes to exceed his personal best of an overall second (2014 and 2017) in his 10th attempt in JRA's international jockey competition.

Following the footsteps of his father, former jockey Yoichi Fukunaga, he made an impressive debut in 1996, winning his first two career starts, and was named JRA's Best Jockey (Newcomer) with 53 wins. After capturing his first grade-race win the following year, he claimed his first G1 victory in 1999 with Primo Ordine in the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas).

He was ranked among the top twelve jockeys, claiming over 80 annual wins from 2000, and has been within the top five since 2010 with over 100 annual wins. He emerged to the top in 2011 and 2013, winning the JRA Award in Winning Average in 2011 and Races Won and Money Earned in 2013. Fukunaga also became the fifth jockey in JRA history to reach the milestone of 2,500 career wins in September last year.

Among his 159 grade-race wins, 34 are G1 victories including 12 classic titles—the Oka Sho (1999 Prix Modine, 2005 Rhein Kraft), the Satsuki Sho (2022 Geoglyph), the Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) (2004 Daiwa el Cielo, 2005 Cesario, 2007 Robe Decollete), the Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) (2018 Wagnerian, 2020 Shahryar) and the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) (2013 Epiphaneia), not to mention his Triple Crown triumph with Contrail in 2020. Major G1 titles won overseas include the 2001 Hong Kong Mile and the Queen Elizabeth II Cup (2002 and 2003) with Eishin Preston, the 2005 American Oaks Invitational Stakes with Cesario and the 2014 Dubai Duty Free with Just a Way.

Kohei Matsuyama

Date of Birth	: March 1, 1990
'22 Season Record	: 324 mounts, 49 wins / ¥ 901,850,000
Career Record	: 10,629 mounts, 943 wins
Recent Career Highlights	: '22 Aoi Stakes (G3, Win Marvel) '22 Heian Stakes (G3, T O Keynes) '21 Champions Cup (G1, T O Keynes)
Participation in the WASJ	: 1st

Kohei Matsuyama reached a milestone of 900 career wins (JRA races alone) on January 15 and, though unable to race for one and a half months due to a fall in March, stands sixth on the national leaderboard as of the end of June with 49 wins, which include four G3 events. He has also registered a third at G1 level in the Takarazuka Kinen with Daring Tact. He was selected as one of the JRA representatives to participate in the World All-Star Jockey for the first time for his outstanding accomplishment with 2020 fillies' Triple Crown winner Daring Tact.

Born in Hyogo Prefecture, Matsuyama was a member of the junior equestrian team at Hanshin Racecourse before enrolling in the JRA Horse Racing School. He won his debut race on March 1, 2009 on his 19th birthday and scored his second win the same day, becoming only the second JRA jockey school graduate to win two since Yuichi Fukunaga in 1996. He was named Best Jockey (Newcomer) by marking 36 wins in his debut year.

He improved his annual wins to 74 in 2012 during which he won his first graded title in the G3 Chunichi Shimbun Hai with Smart Gear. Since then, he has ranked consistently in the top 17 jockeys, claiming over 56 wins every year except in 2016 (47 wins, 23rd). He claimed NAR's top sprint title, the JBC Sprint, with Corin Berry in 2015 and registered his first JRA-G1 victory with ninth pick Al Ain in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) in 2017.

He has been among the top eight on the leaderboard since 2018 with over 84 wins and his annual wins reached three-digit figures for the first time in 2020 when he was fourth with 127 wins. During that season, he swept the fillies' Triple Crown—the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas), the Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) and the Shuka Sho—with Daring Tact who become the first undefeated filly to do so. He added his name to the JRA history books as the fastest and youngest jockey to achieve 10,000 career wins on September 19, 2021 and concluded the season in third on the leaderboard with his personal-best of 130 wins, which included his fifth G1 title in the Champions Cup with T O Keynes.
