Yutaka Take Claims His Second Champion Title in This Year's World All-Star Jockeys

Yutaka Take captured his much-awaited second champion title this year since claiming the 1992 World Super Jockeys Series. Scoring a win in the 1st leg with sixth pick Meisho Tsutsuji, Take finished third in the 2nd leg with fourth favorite Asake Lady to come on top at the end of Day One. Though his horse was excluded from racing in the 3rd leg, his runner-up effort with second choice Kafuji Azul in the 4th leg brought him back to the top with 71 points.

Yutaka Take: "I'm glad that we were able to hold the series this year and that foreign jockeys were able to join us under difficult circumstances. It was very rewarding to be able to compete with everyone and I was able to spend a very fulfilling two days. I'm really happy that I was able to ride on good horses and claim the title this year as I have been coming in second many times since claiming the title years ago. We JRA jockeys always try hard to be able to take part in this event every year and I hope I'll be able to compete again next year."

Twelve points behind in second with 59 points was Yuga Kawada who marked a win, a third, a fourth and a ninth.

Yuga Kawada: "I'm just grateful that the series has returned after being cancelled for a couple of years, and I enjoyed competing in this atmosphere once again with my fellow jockeys. I'm also glad to have done well personally but "the legend" was, as always, very hard to beat. After another week of summer racing, the autumn racing scene featuring top-notch races will begin and we hope to do our best and contribute to another exciting season."

Kohei Matsuyama who marked a seventh and a second on the first day came on top after winning the 3rd leg but succumbed to third, only one point behind Kawada, after finishing ninth in the 4th leg.

Kohei Matsuyama: “I have to admit I was hoping to win the overall title when I stood at the top after winning the 3rd leg, but it’s a shame it didn’t work out that way. I’m thankful to the horses—they all fought hard. After wrapping up a hot summer campaign in a week, I hope we can deliver to the fans an exciting fall season of racing.”

Theo Bachelot who was tied sixth at the end of Day One, finishing ninth and fourth in the first two races, improved to fourth place by winning the 4th leg with eighth pick Eingebung.

Team JRA claimed the team competition with a comfortable 284 points to claim its sixth consecutive title while Team WAS collected 174 points.

1st: (6) Kohei Matsuyama—reserved in mid-pack, shifted out for space, rallied for lead rounding final turn, took command at furlong pole, drew clear easily

2nd: (10) Yoshitomi Shibata—sat 4th to 5th, met traffic early stretch, slipped through gap along the rails, quickened to pick off eventual 3rd 100m out, no match for winner

3rd: (13) Chak Yiu Ho—pressed pace in 2nd to 3rd, advanced to lead field into straight, gave way to eventual winner at furlong marker, caught by runner-up 100m out

“After watching his previous videos, I was expecting to position him a little farther back, but he broke well so I let him maintain his rhythm. I thought we had won with two furlongs to go, but the winner was in a different class. I think this race pattern can work for him also.”

4th: (14) Makoto Okabe—broke well, took wide trip in 5th to 6th, advanced position at last corner, weakened slightly in straight, picked off tired rivals for 4th

5th: (7) Christophe Lemaire—unhurried and rated at rear end of field, made headway 600m out along outside, showed good effort with much ground to cover

6th: (8) Craig Williams—chased leaders in third, stayed close to rails along backstretch while overtaken by rivals on outside, shifted out slightly for clear run at straight, unable to threaten

“He was quick out of the gate and the trip went smoothly. I heard that he ran out of steam last time out, but today, he didn’t give up and kept running to the finish.”

7th: (2) Yuichi Fukunaga—hugged rails in mid-division, 2-wide turning for home, failed to respond in stretch

8th: (11) Takeshi Yokoyama—traveled wide near rear, advanced to 7th into stretch, even paced thereafter

9th: (4) Yuga Kawada—broke well, pressed pace in second, took front in the backstretch and led field entering lane, came up empty

10th: (3) David Egan—rated further back than midfield along the rails, advanced slightly 600m out but even paced thereafter

“He wouldn’t settle down in the gate, so his start was poor.”

11th: (12) Coralie Pacaut—broke sharply, traveled wide towards the rear, never reached contention

“I did my best to drive her on but got no response.”

12th: (1) James Graham—rallied for lead to set pace, faded after 3rd corner

“I heard that she didn’t like being crowded, so I decided to go to the front. She lost her concentration when a horse came up beside her.”

Excluded from running (by stewards): (5) Yutaka Take—lameness in Love Spiel’s right hindleg

Excluded from running (by stewards): (9) Theo Bachelot—lameness in Earth Riser’s right foreleg

1st: (5) Theo Bachelot—rallied for lead, eased back to 2nd, urged after 3rd corner to lead 200m out, held off fast closing runner-up

“I was able to position the filly behind the no.3 horse (Yuga Kawada) just as planned and I’m glad we raced well. I was told that the fans here are incredible and it’s really great for us jockeys. It’s a super experience for me to come to Japan and win my first race here. I thank the JRA for the invitation and the owner and trainer for their confidence, arigato-gozaimasu! Since today’s first race was not easy and yesterday, the best was a fourth-place finish (in the series), I was so happy I was first to clear the finish line.”

2nd: (12) Yutaka Take—broke well, ran 4th to 5th, loomed 3-wide close behind eventual winner at final turn, advanced to 2nd 100m out, challenged but failed to catch winner

3rd: (3) Yuga Kawada—set pace, entered lane first, gave up lead before furlong pole, caught by runner-up 100m out, held off fast closing rivals for third

4th: (7) Yoshitomi Shibata—reserved in second from rear, launched late and widest bid into lane, closed strongly to nose out 5th-place finisher at wire

5th: (11) Coralie Pacaut—missed a beat out of gate and raced wide near rear early, made headway approaching third corner and showed good turn of speed to make up ground to 5th

“The horse responded very well after the last corner.”

6th: (4) Yuichi Fukunaga—sat in mid-division, mild bid rounding last corner, showed effort, caught by fast closing rivals in final strides

7th: (8) Christophe Lemaire—broke well, saved ground in 3rd up to final turn, lacked needed stretch kick and gradually weakened

8th: (14) Takeshi Yokoyama—unhurried in far rear, last in straight, closed eagerly with 2nd fastest late speed, picked off tired rivals

9th: (13) Kohei Matsuyama—traveled wide in mid-division, dropped back to last in early stretch but passed tiring rivals in last 100 meters

10th: (10) Craig Williams—raced in 4th in good striking position, chased leaders entering lane but had little left for final run

“He broke better than I anticipated. I was able to position him close to the winner but we just couldn’t keep up. I think he could do better at a shorter distance. He might have not regained his form.”

11th: (1) Makoto Okabe—hugged rails around 10th, shifted out turning final corners, even paced thereafter

12th: (6) Chak Yiu Ho—eased back towards rear after good break, advanced to 6th entering lane, failed to respond at stretch

13th: (2) James Graham—broke well, rated 6th by rails, showed mild response in stretch but faded in last 100 meters

“He tried hard but a longer distance might suit him more.”

FF: (9) David Egan—unhurried near rear early, pulled up after 3rd corner due to lameness in Meisho Narihira’s right hindleg
