

SUBJECT: RESULT OF THE 28TH SHUKA SHO (G1)

The Shuka Sho, established in 1996, is run over 2,000 meters at Kyoto Racecourse as the third leg of the fillies' Triple Crown following the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas, G1, 1,600m) and the Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks, G1, 2,400m) held in spring. The Queen Elizabeth II Cup (G1, 2,200m) was formally regarded as the third leg of the fillies' Triple Crown until the race was opened to older fillies and mares; hence the Shuka Sho was established to take its place. Acquiring international G1 status in 2009, the Shuka Sho is open to foreign runners. The race was temporarily shifted to Hanshin Racecourse during 2021-2022 due to the renovation of Kyoto Racecourse, which has hosted the race since its establishment. Past fillies' Triple Crown winners include Mejiro Ramonu (JPN, by Mogami; 1986), Still in Love (JPN, by Sunday Silence; 2003), Apapane (JPN, by King Kamehameha; 2010), Gentildonna (JPN, by Deep Impact; 2012), Almond Eye (JPN, by Lord Kanaloa; 2018) and Daring Tact (JPN, by Epiphaneia; 2020) who was the first filly in JRA history to do so undefeated.

This year, Liberty Island aimed to become the seventh Triple Crown winner in her autumn kick-off start. Also, those who commenced their fall campaign with this race were Kona Coast and Harper, respective runner-ups in the Oka Sho and the Yushun Himba. The top three finishers in each of the two trial races who earned their tickets to the Shuka Sho were: Moryana (1st), Hip Hop Soul (2nd) and Shirankedo (JPN, by Declaration of War; 3rd) in the Shion Stakes (G2, 2,000m, Sep.9), and Masked Diva, Brede Weg (JPN, by Lord Kanaloa) and Malaki Naia in that order in the Rose Stakes (G2, 1,800m, Sep.17), though Shirankedo withdrew the entry due to her poor condition and Brede Weg will head to the Queen Elizabeth II Cup (G1, 2,200m, Nov.12) to compete against older fillies/mares. The field also included Dura, who came off her second graded victory in the Queen Stakes (G3, 1,800m, Jul.30), Pipiola and Festes Band, respective winners in the 2-win class races, the Saikai Sho (2,000m, Aug.26) and the World All-Star Jockeys 4th Leg (1,800m, Aug.27).

Liberty Island Wins the Shuka Sho and Crowned Triple Crown Champion

Overwhelming favorite Liberty Island claimed this year's Shuka Sho to sweep the Triple Crown races for fillies including the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas, 1,600m) and the Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks, 2,400m) held in spring. She is the seventh filly to dominate all fillies' Triple Crown races following Mejiro Ramonu (1986), Still in Love (2003), Apapane (2010), Gentildonna (2012), Almond Eye (2018) and Daring Tact (2020). She also extended her G1-winning streak to four including last year's Hanshin Juvenile Fillies (1,600m), which earned her the JRA Award's Best Two-Year-Old Filly title. With this race, trainer Mitsumasa Nakauchida captured his eighth JRA-G1 victory following his Yushun Himba title with this filly, while jockey Yuga Kawada marked his 25th JRA-G1 win following the Sprinters

Stakes with Mama Cocha two weeks earlier and also conquered all seven G1 races for three-year-olds. Starting this year, Japanese-bred horse that achieves the fillies' Triple Crown title will receive a bonus of 100 million yen.

Liberty Island broke smoothly and settled two-wide in good position behind the leaders, around seventh along the backstretch, and made headway 600 meters out while turning the last corners wide. After taking command around the 400-meter pole, the Duramente filly found another gear to exert a strong drive along the stretch and, although threatened by the fast-closing chase by Masked Diva before the wire, managed to hold off the Rulership filly by a length margin for her Triple Crown title.

"I'm grateful that we were able to achieve the Triple Crown. She is a horse with great ability, so I placed top priority on letting her run comfortably and finding a good path for her. I was confident of her victory when we had an open space at the third corner. She has great potential, and her dreams for the future are wide open, but first of all, I would like to praise her for achieving the Triple Crown," commented Yuga Kawada.

Third pick Masked Diva broke sharply and eased back to settle around 13th. Though meeting traffic at the top of the stretch, the filly found an opening 300 meters out and dislodged a powerful late charge that timed the fastest last three furlongs to close in on the leader but was a length short at the wire to finish second.

Second pick Harper sat around fifth in front of the winner, angled out slightly turning the final corner and, while unable to keep up with the winner's speed, managed to pass the tiring frontrunners 100 meters out but missed the runner-up spot before the wire for third.

Other Horses:
