The World All-Star Jockeys (WASJ) is an international event launched by the Japan Racing Association. Initially established in 1987 under the name “the World Super Jockeys Series,” it has welcomed more than 260 top-caliber jockeys from Europe, North America, South America, Oceania and Asia. Renamed the World All-Star Jockeys as a summer event at Sapporo Racecourse in Hokkaido in 2015, a team competition was added to the regular individual contest in which the overseas and NAR jockeys’ “Team WAS (World All-Star)” compete against “Team JRA” to attain the most points as a team.

The first two of the four-race series will be conducted on August 23rd (Sat.), while the remaining two will be held the following day.

Career Record	: 10,995 mounts, 953 wins
Recent Career Highlights	: '25 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby, G1, Croix du Nord) '25 Aichi Hai (G3, Wide Latour) '24 Hopeful Stakes (G1, Croix du Nord)

Yuichi Kitamura notched his first Derby and classic victory with Croix du Nord in this year's Tokyo Yushun after settling for second place in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas). He has marked more than 950 wins in JRA races alone and, as of June 22, stands 13th on the national leaderboard with 34 wins. In his 20th season, the 38-year-old jockey will make his first appearance in the World All-Star Jockeys and compete against outstanding jockeys gathered from in and outside of Japan.

Born and raised in Shiga Prefecture, Kitamura was initially interested in football as a young boy but, uncertain of continuing the sport due to his short stature, gave riding a try in junior high school which eventually led him to enroll in the JRA Horse Racing School in 2003. Debuted in 2006, his 14 annual wins that year more than tripled to 53 in 2008 when he claimed his first graded title with Schon Wald in the Daily Hai Nisai Stakes (G2).

Although his wins dropped to 41 mainly because of a five-month absence due to a fall injury in 2009, Kitamura registered graded titles along with more than 50 annual wins, except for 2014 and 2015, and boosted his personal-best to 90 wins in 2018 which placed him sixth in the jockey's standings. His much-anticipated G1 victory came in 2019 in the Osaka Hai with ninth favorite Al Ain, followed by two more G1 wins that season—the Shuka Sho with Chrono Genesis and the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies with Resistencia.

Kitamura also enjoyed a rewarding season in 2020 when he added two more G1 titles, the Takarazuka Kinen and the Arima Kinen with Chrono Genesis, and concluded the year tenth in the national standings by collecting a total of 85 wins. However, in May 2021, diagnosed with more than eight vertebrae fractures from a brutal spill, Kitamura was ruled out of racing for more than a year. Following his comeback in June 2022, the Ritto-based jockey strived to return to form and steadily racked up wins—40 in 2023 and 59 in 2024 in which he claimed his sixth G1 victory with Croix du Nord in the Hopeful Stakes.

Kitamura's overseas stints so far include runner-up efforts in the 2021 Dubai Sheema Classic with Chrono Genesis and the 2022 Hong Kong Cup with Danon the Kid. Meanwhile, he has notched four listed-race victories in the NAR racing circuit such as the 2018 Zen-Nippon Nisai Yushun with Nova Lenda and the 2020 JBC Ladies' Classic with Fashionista.

Tosaki's career began in 1998 at Oi Racecourse as a stable jockey for trainer Kazutaka Katori. He rode his first winner in April of that year, scored his 100th win in 2002 and landed his first major title in the Twinkle Lady Sho with Koei Sophia in 2005. The following year, he nearly doubled his wins to 123, and then rose to third in NAR racing with 212 wins in 2007, the same year he scored his first JRA win at Hanshin Racecourse. This began a remarkable streak of success as the four-time NAR leader in 2008–2009 and 2011–2012. Given the opportunity to race on JRA mounts, Tosaki scored his first JRA graded win with Glorious Noah in the 2010 Musashino Stakes and marked his first JRA G1 victory in the 2011 Yasuda Kinen with Real Impact.

After transferring to JRA racing in 2013, Tosaki quickly placed himself among the top five jockeys nationally with 113 wins, including a G1 title with Red Reveur in the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies. His success continued in 2014, when he led the national standings with 10 more wins than the runner-up and capped his remarkable second season with a victory in the year-end Arima Kinen aboard Gentildonna. He defended his champion-jockey title with 130 wins in 2015 and set a personal best with 187 wins in 2016.

Tosaki has ranked in the top seven on the national leaderboard ever since, except for 2020 when he was sidelined for five months with injury. His other G1 titles include the 2015 and 2016 Victoria Mile and 2015 Sprinters Stakes with Straight Girl, his first classic victory in the 2018 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) with Epoca d'Oro, the 2020 Champions Cup with Chuwa Wizard, the 2021 Shuka Sho with Akaitorino Musume, the 2023 Victoria Mile and Yasuda Kinen with Songline, the 2024 Satsuki Sho with Justin Milano and the 2024 Arima Kinen with Regaleira. His JRA awards include three Best Jockey for Races Won in 2014–2016 and five MVJ in 2014–16, 2022 and 2024.

Ryusei Sakai returned from a successful overseas campaign earlier this year in which he notched his much-anticipated first overseas G1 title with Forever Young in the Saudi Cup right after claiming the G2 Neom Turf Cup with Shin Emperor the same day. While missing his first Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) title by 3/4 length partnered with Masquerade Ball, he is currently runner-up on the national leaderboard with 58 wins (JRA races alone) which include two G3 titles. The 28-year-old jockey will make his third consecutive appearance in the World All-Star Jockeys this summer in hopes to better his overall bronze finish marked last year.

Born in Tokyo as the son of a jockey-turned-trainer at NAR's Oi Racecourse, Sakai graduated from the JRA Horse Racing School and made his racing debut in March 2016, riding for trainer Yoshito Yahagi who is well known for an array of overseas triumphs. The rookie made his grade-race debut in August in the Sapporo Kinen (16th) and concluded his first season with a total of 25 wins. In November 2017, Sakai set out to gain experience in Australia for a year and rode 16 winners during which he made his first G1 attempt in the 2018 Caulfield Cup (14th).

Back in Japan, Sakai claimed his first grade-race title in the 2019 Fillies' Revue (G2, No One), the first of three graded victories he marked that season, and collected a total of 30 wins. He steadily improved his score to 42 in 2020 and 53 in 2021. His much awaited first JRA-G1 victory was in the 2022 Shuka Sho with Stunning Rose which was followed by the Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes triumph with Dolce More later that year. After capping off the 2022 season with 98 wins which placed him eighth on the national jockey leaderboard, he continued to enhance his game, ranking seventh with 107 wins in 2023 and fourth with 115 in 2024, during which he won the 2023 February Stakes and the 2023-2024 Champions Cup with Lemon Pop and the 2024 Takamatsunomiya Kinen with Mad Cool. He also grabbed major NAR titles such as the Mile Championship Nambu Hai in 2023 and 2024 with Lemon Pop and the Japan Dirt Classic and the Tokyo Daishoten in 2024 with Forever Young.

Under the expertise and guidance of Yahagi, the young jockey has shown impressive results overseas in the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia, France, Great Britain, Australia and the United States which include victories in the Godolphin Mile in 2022 and the 1351 Turf Sprint in 2023 with Bathrat Leon, and the Saudi Derby and the UAE Derby in 2024 with Forever Young let alone the aforementioned achievements earlier this season.

Norihiro Yokoyama became this year's recipient of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries Award (4th Horseracing Achievement Awards) for his outstanding decades of contribution to the horse racing sport. Now in his 40th season as a JRA jockey, the 57-year-old is second only to Yutaka Take in career wins (2,978) and continues to position himself among the top jockeys, becoming the oldest G1 and derby winner at the age of 56 in last year's Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby). The veteran jockey aims to win the overall title in the renewed version of JRA's international jockeys' competition which would make him the first jockey to claim three champion titles.

He landed his first grade-race win in 1988 in the Winter Stakes (G3) and went on to capture his first G1 victory two years later in the Queen Elizabeth II Commemorative Cup with Kyoei Tap, which was just one out of eight graded stakes he marked that season.

He steadily accumulated wins and reached a milestone of 1,000 career wins (JRA races alone) in 2000, 2,000 wins in 2009 and 2,500 wins in 2014. He was ranked within the top ten on JRA's national leaderboard between 1992 and 2012 and became the leader with 120 wins in 2010. Among the eight World Super Jockeys Series and the two World All-Star Jockeys he has participated in so far, he has taken home the title twice in 1995 and in 2009.

He has claimed two JRA grade-race titles and three NAR major titles so far this season including two legs of the Dirt Triple Crown—the Haneda Hai and the Tokyo Derby with Natural Rise. The 26-year-old jockey hopes to improve on his previous World All-Star Jockeys performances, 13th (2022) and 8th (2023), in his third bid for the title this summer.

Born in a renowned racing family beginning with his grandfather Tomio, a former jockey, his father Norihiro and elder brother Kazuo, both active jockeys, Yokoyama made his racing debut in March of 2017 and claimed 13 wins that year. While steadily compiling more annual wins, 35 in 2018 and 54 in 2019, he claimed his first graded title in the G2 Flora Stakes on Win Marilyn in 2020 and capped off that season with 94 wins, becoming the youngest jockey to top the Eastern Japan jockey rankings (6th nationally).

In 2021, Yokoyama scored his first G1 triumph in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) with Efforia and captured two more G1 titles with the eventual 2021 Horse of the Year in the Tenno Sho (Autumn) and the “Grand Prix” Arima Kinen. Two additional G1 wins in the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) with Titleholder and the Hopeful Stakes with Killer Ability tied him with Christophe Lemaire in notching a total of five G1 victories. He capped off his most successful campaign yet that season with 104 wins and was ranked first in the Eastern division and fifth in the national standings.

Yokoyama rose to third in the national rankings with his personal-high of 127 wins in 2022 and finished third again with 126 victories in 2023 when he registered his sixth G1 title in the Satsuki Sho with Sol Oriens. Finishing sixth on the national leaderboard in 2024 with a total of 102 wins, he extended his streak of triple-digit victories to four consecutive years.

He also participated in the 2022 Shergar Cup, his first overseas endeavor, and marked a runner-up effort in one of his five starts as a member of the “Rest of the World” Team. He also rode in three overseas graded events in 2024 when he won the Korea Cup with Crown Pride and registered a fifth in the Breeders’ Cup Mile with Geoglyph.
