The World All-Star Jockeys (WASJ) is an international event launched by the Japan Racing Association. Initially established in 1987 under the name “the World Super Jockeys Series,” it has welcomed more than 270 top-caliber jockeys from Europe, North America, South America, Oceania and Asia. Renamed the World All-Star Jockeys as a summer event at Sapporo Racecourse in Hokkaido in 2015, a team competition was added to the regular individual contest in which the overseas and NAR jockeys’ “Team WAS (World All-Star)” compete against “Team JRA” to attain the most points as a team.

The first two of the four-race series will be conducted on August 22nd (Sat.), while the remaining two will be held the following day.

After debuting as a jockey in 2002, he won the national apprentice championship in 2003/2004 and claimed his first G1 title with Badger's Gift in the 2007 Paddock Stakes. He topped the Western Cape's leaderboard with 113 wins in 2007/2008, placing himself among the nation's elite jockeys and repeated the feat in 2011/2012, this time in the Eastern Cape rankings with 47 wins.

In 2012, Fourie relocated to Hong Kong where he collected 34 wins including the Premier Bowl with Cerise Cherry who went on to register a second in the 2012 Hong Kong Sprint behind Japan's legendary sprinter Lord Kanaloa. Accumulating nearly 3,500 wins so far, the 41-year-old rider will make his debut in Japan and aim to become the second Canadian-based jockey to grab the World All-Star Jockeys champion title following Eurico Da Silva in 2017.

A native of San Lorenzo in Puerto Rico, Hernandez began riding, influenced by his uncle Heriberto Rivera Jr., a former jockey who won over 3,100 races, and enrolled in the Vocational Equestrian School whose graduates include top jockeys such as John Velazquez, Jose Ortiz and Irad Ortiz Jr. After graduating, he moved to the United States and made his riding debut at Tampa Bay Downs in 2004 during which he scored 57 wins at racetracks in Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland and West Virginia.

Riding mainly in Illinois thereafter, Hernandez registered over 100 annual wins between 2005 and 2010, then surpassed the 200-winner mark between 2011 and 2014. He held the leading titles at Fairmount Park in 2005-2008 and 2010-2014. He also rode at various racetracks including Woodbine, Canada's flagship racetrack, at which he claimed his first graded title in the G3 Grey Stakes in 2014 and eventually relocated two years later.

After ranking fourth with 99 wins at his first year at Woodbine, Hernandez has placed himself within the top three since 2017—third with 154 wins in 2017, second in both 2018 and 2019 with 168 and 164 wins, respectively—and became the champion jockey by collecting 129 wins in 2020 which earned him the Sovereign Award as Outstanding Jockey. Taylor Stakes with Etoile in 2020, which was followed by another two G1s, both in the Natalma Stakes, with Last Call in 2022 and And One More Time in 2024. Zac Lloyd, still in his early 20s, continues to enjoy great success ever since the beginning of his career as a jockey and the two-time champion apprentice jockey finished second in the 2025/2026 season by collecting 79 wins, which included three G1 titles in the Golden Slipper with Guest House, the Vinery Stud Stakes with Belle Cheval and the Queen Of The Turf Stakes with Idle Flyer. Following his overseas stints in Great Britain and South Africa, the quick-rising jockey will be showcasing his skills in his first appearance at Sapporo in the coming World All-Star Jockeys.

Born in Durban, South Africa, Zac was raised in a racing family with his father Jeff, a former jockey who amassed over 5,000 career wins with around 90 G1 victories in South Africa, Mauritius, Hong Kong and Australia, and elder brother, Jaden, also an active jockey. After spending his childhood in Hong Kong and graduating from high school in Australia, he became apprentice to Toby Edmonds at Gold Coast and won his debut race at Dalby on November 27, 2020, before concluding his first season with 24 provincial wins in Queensland.

Lloyd became a champion apprentice at Gold Coast and scored 54 provincial victories in 2021/2022, which led him to join the stables of then Godolphin's private trainer James Cummings with recommendations from Darren Beadman (then racing manager for Godolphin Australia). Based in Sydney to ride in metropolitan racing, he claimed his first group-race title in the G2 Millie Fox Stakes and quickly rose to place second behind James McDonald on the premiership in 2022/2023. His record of 76 wins that season was the second highest to Wayne Harris (89 wins) back in 1980/1981 for apprentice jockeys in metropolitan racing which earned him the added honor of the Bart Cummings Medal.

Lloyd led the apprentice leaderboard two straight seasons and was ranked fifth among seniors with 60½ wins in Sydney in 2023/2024, during which he notched his first G1 victory with Stefi Magnetica in the Stradbroke Handicap at Eagle Farm in Queensland. In the following 2024/2025 season, he was third in Sydney with 67 wins including two G1s—the Flight Stakes with Lady Shenandoah and the Randwick Guineas with Linebacker.

Despite chances of becoming the premiership leader, Lloyd chose to gain experience and success abroad—registering seven wins in Great Britain in June including a victory in the Britannia Stakes at Royal Ascot and riding his first winner in his birthplace, South Africa.

Suraj Narredu, India's most accomplished active jockey, reached a major milestone in January this year in becoming the first Indian jockey ever to surpass the 2,500-winner mark. Also on New Year's Day, he tied a long-standing Indian racing record set by Aslam Kader in the 1993/1994 Mumbai season in claiming all six rides on the same card. With more than 250 domestic grade-race victories and over 100 classic titles to his name, the legendary jockey will make his much-desired debut in Japan in the coming World All-Star Jockeys.

Born in Bangalore in southern India, Suraj Narredu comes from a prominent racing family—both his father Satish and uncle Malesh are established jockey-turned trainers who each have achieved over 1,000 wins as jockeys while his brother Rajesh is also a successful trainer. Inspired by Britain's top jockey Lanfranco Dettori, Narredu began riding at the Bangalore Amateur Riding Institute before obtaining his jockey's license in 2002.

The promising young rider claimed his first classic victory the following year in the Hyderabad 2000 Guineas (Coral Gables) and won the leading apprentice title in the 2003/2004 Bangalore Winter meeting. He accumulated wins to establish himself as a top jockey and became the youngest jockey in India to reach the milestone of 1,000 career wins in 2010 and then 2,000 in 2019. Four-time Champion Jockey of the Year between 2020 and 2023, Narredu has topped nearly 30 meetings nationwide, including the winter meetings at Kolkata in 2024/2025 and 2025/2026.

Among the five major classic races held at Mumbai, Narredu boasts 11 titles—the Indian 1000 Guineas with Godspeed (2014) and Lady In Lace (2017); the Indian 2000 Guineas with Be Safe (2014), Lagarde (2021 January), A Star Is Born (2021 December) and Synthesis (2023); the Indian Derby with Be Safe (2015), Star Superior (2019), War Hammer (2020) and Immortality (2021); and the Indian St. Leger with Touch of Grey (2024).

Outside of India, Narredu has riding experiences in Macau, Mauritius, Malaysia, Dubai, France, Ireland, the United States and Australia. He won the championship in the 2009 International Jockeys' Weekend in Mauritius, denying hopefuls such as Mickael Barzalona, Maxime Guyon, Hayley Turner and Karis Teetan. Last year, he took part in the Shergar Cup in which his uncle Malesh also participated in 2009, and as a captain of Team Asia, claimed a win, a fourth and fifth in five races to lead his team to an overall victory.

Marie Velon will return to Japan for the first time in three years since her debut in Japan in the 2023 World All-Star Jockeys, where she was fourth overall and claimed her first JRA victory in the third leg. Later that year, she partnered with Iresine in the Japan Cup and finished ninth. The winner of six consecutive Cravache d'Or Feminin titles (2020-25) suffered an injury in February, returned to racing in April and stands 38th with 16 wins as of the end of July. She will aim to become the first female champion in her second World All-Star Jockeys appearance.

Born in Lyon, France, Velon became interested in horse racing when she started going to the local racecourses with her family and began riding ponies. At the age of 12, her uncle and former jockey, Antoinat, took her to the Bernard Goudot stables in Chazey-sur-Ain, where she rode for three years. She then joined the AFASEC horse racing school and personally approached Alain de Royer-Dupre to become his apprentice and made her debut in 2016. In 2017, she moved to Jean-Pierre Gauvin's stable in search of more riding opportunities and marked her first win in September before concluding the season with four wins.

She significantly increased her win total, climbing to 35th on the leaderboard with 42 wins in 2018 and to 32nd with 40 wins the following year. In 2020, she rose to seventh, becoming the first female to reach the top 10 with a record 84 wins by a female jockey. Velon remained in the top 10 for five consecutive years—10th (77 wins) in 2021, ninth (67) in 2022, when the championship season changed to the March-to-October period, seventh (72) in 2023 and eighth (67) in 2024. While settling for 14th (51 wins) last year, she remained the leader among female jockeys.

Velon claimed her first group race in the La Coupe (G3) in 2021 with Iresine, with whom she went on to win the Prix Foy (G2) and captured her first group-one victory in the Prix Royal-Oak in 2022, becoming the third female jockey and the first French female jockey to win a group-one race in France. Her other group-race victories include the 2023 Prix Ganay (G1), the 2023 Prix du Conseil de Paris (G2) and the 2024 Prix Foy with Iresine, and the 2023 Prix Miesque (G3) with Tamfana.

Velon participated in the 2022 and 2026 International Jockeys Challenge in Saudi Arabia as well as in the 2024 Shergar Cup in Great Britain, where she contributed to the Ladies' team's overall victory with two thirds, one fourth and one fifth in five starts.

Three-time NAR national champion jockey Tomohiro Yoshimura celebrated his 3,900th victory in the NAR racing circuit on June 3 this year and leads the Hyogo area jockey rankings with 134 wins as of June 21. The 41-year-old rider secured his ticket as NAR representative to participate in the coming World All-Star Jockeys for the third time by capturing this year's NAR Jockey's Championship title held at Funabashi Racecourse on June 2.

Born and raised in an environment alien to racing, the Osaka native studied at NAR's Racing Education Center and made his debut in April of 2002 as a registered jockey of the Hyogo Prefectural Racing Association. Steadily accumulating wins, he claimed his first major title in the Tokai Queen Cup with Hatsune Dogo in 2005. In Hyogo's jockey rankings, Yoshimura has never finished out of the top five since 2012 and reigned as leading jockey between 2018 and 2024 but was second in 2025 when absent from racing for three months due to an injury suffered in a fall.

Yoshimura's annual wins exceeded 100 in 2013, 200 in 2017, and 300 in 2019. He continued to ride more than 300 winners until 2023 while renewing the record of most annual wins in the Hyogo area in 2020 with a total of 353 wins. His dramatic progress in performance led Yoshimura to become NAR's national champion and earned him the NAR Grand Prix Best Jockey (Races Won) title in 2018, 2022 and 2023.

In his 24-year career, Yoshimura has notched numerous major titles in Hyogo and other NAR tracks—the Sonoda Kimpai in 2023 (Smile Mircha) and 2025 (Odilon); the Hyogo Yushun (the Hyogo Derby) in 2019 (Ban Rose Kings), 2023 (Smile Mircha) and 2026 (God Fencer); the Kusunoki Sho in 2022 (Ecoro Courage); the Kochikenchiji Sho in 2025 (Odilon); the Shinshun Sho in 2010 (Key Pocket), 2017 and 2019–2022 (A Shin Nispa); and the Diolite Kinen in 2026 (Odilon), his first victory in a listed NAR race open to JRA-based runners.

His first opportunity to ride in JRA races was in 2005 and he registered his much anticipated first JRA victory in July 2023 with a solid performance at Fukushima Racecourse then secured another win in the last race on the same card. He also made his first JRA G1 challenge in the Japan Cup (Kurino Megami Ace, 18th) in November that year. Yoshimura has twice challenged the World All-Star Jockeys, in 2019 and 2024, finishing an overall seventh and 11th, respectively. His son Seinosuke made his debut as a JRA jockey in 2024.

Takeshi Yokoyama reached the milestone of 800 JRA career wins on April 12 this year and is currently placed at the top of the Eastern division rankings while standing fifth nationally with 54 wins (JRA races alone). Although winless at graded level so far this season, he marked a valiant runner-up effort with Gaia Force in the Yasuda Kinen in June. In his fourth bid for the World All-Star Jockeys title this summer, the 27-year-old hopes to exceed his three previous results, 13th (2022), eighth (2023) and tied-fourth (2025).

Born in a renowned racing family beginning with his grandfather Tomio, a former jockey, father Norihiro and elder brother Kazuo, both active jockeys, Yokoyama made his racing debut in March of 2017 and claimed 13 wins that year. While steadily compiling more annual wins, 35 in 2018 and 54 in 2019, he claimed his first graded title in the G2 Flora Stakes on Win Marilyn in 2020 and capped off that season with 94 wins, becoming the youngest jockey to top the Eastern Japan jockey rankings (6th nationally).

In 2021, Yokoyama scored his first G1 triumph in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) with Efforia and captured two more G1 titles with the eventual 2021 Horse of the Year in the Tenno Sho (Autumn) and the Arima Kinen. Two additional G1 wins in the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) with Titleholder and the Hopeful Stakes with Killer Ability tied him with Christophe Lemaire in notching a total of five G1 victories. He capped off his most successful campaign yet that season with 104 wins and was ranked fifth in the national standings.

Yokoyama rose to third in the national rankings with his personal-high of 127 wins in 2022 and finished third again with 126 victories in 2023 when he registered his sixth G1 title in the Satsuki Sho with Sol Oriens. He continued to tally three-digit wins the following two seasons—102 in 2024 and 110 in 2025, which placed him sixth and fourth, respectively, on the national leaderboard, and has accumulated a total of 27 graded titles in the JRA so far. Meanwhile, he has conquered nine NAR major events including the 2024–2025 JBC Ladies' Classic with Ammothella and the 2025 Haneda Hai and Tokyo Derby with Natural Rise.

He participated in the 2022 Shergar Cup, his first overseas endeavor, and marked a runner-up effort in one of his five starts as a member of the “Rest of the World” Team. He also rode in three overseas graded events in 2024 in which he won the Korea Cup with Crown Pride and registered a fifth in the Breeders' Cup Mile with Geoglyph.

Yutaka Take continues to produce impressive results as Japan's longstanding top jockey—he has not missed a year without a grade-race victory in 40 years since his debut. This season, he is ranked 10th on the national leaderboard with 38 wins in JRA which include the Yasuda Kinen with Sixpence and the Takarazuka Kinen with Meisho Tabaru, the latter being his 86th JRA-G1 victory and places him as the oldest G1-winning jockey at 57 years and 3 months. The legendary jockey, who has accumulated nearly 4,700 wins in JRA alone, will aim for his third champion title, following 1992 and 2022, in the coming World All-Star Jockeys.

The third son of late trainer Kunihiko, Take started riding at 10 and has consistently achieved new milestones. He debuted in 1987 and immediately distinguished himself with 69 wins. An 18-time champion jockey in 1989, 1990, 1992-2000 and 2002-2008, he exceeded 200 wins for three consecutive years starting in 2003, culminating a record 212 wins in 2005. In 2007, he became the youngest jockey to reach an unprecedented 3,000 wins.

His first G1 and classic win came with Super Creek in the 1988 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) and his first Derby title came with Special Week 10 years later. Take became the first JRA jockey to ride a G1 winner overseas when he claimed the 1994 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp with Ski Paradise trained by Andre Fabre. He also rode the first Japanese-trained G1 winner abroad when guiding Seeking the Pearl to victory in the 1998 Prix Maurice de Gheest. He has 24 wins overseas at group-race level, including seven G1 races in the United Kingdom, France, Hong Kong and Dubai combined.

Take celebrated his 100th G1 victory (JRA, NAR and overseas) when he won the Mile Championship with Tosen Ra in 2013. He has a record of 370 grade-race wins in JRA alone, among which 86 are at G1 level. Horses he has partnered that subsequently earned Horse of the Year titles include Inari One, Oguri Cap, Air Groove, Deep Impact, Vodka, Kitasan Black and Do Deuce. Since his first JRA award title as a rookie in 1987, he has won 18 jockey titles for Races Won, 16 for Money Earned, 11 for Winning Average, nine Grand Prizes for dominating all three jockey categories in the same season, and three Special Awards. He also received the Japanese government's Medal of Honor with Yellow Ribbon in 2024 for his diligence as a JRA jockey and contributions to the development and promotion of the horse racing industry.

Now in his 41st season as a JRA jockey, Norihiro Yokoyama continues to position himself among the top jockeys, becoming the second jockey only to Yutaka Take to reach a milestone of 3,000 JRA career wins on March 8. The 58-year-old veteran jockey aims to win the overall title in the renewed version of JRA's international jockeys' competition which would make him the first jockey to claim three champion titles.

The son of Tomio, a former G1-winning jockey, and also the father of active JRA jockeys, Kazuo and Takeshi, Yokoyama kicked off his career in 1986 and marked his first win at Tokyo Racecourse with Kioi God that April. He landed his first grade-race win in 1988 in the Winter Stakes (G3) and went on to capture his first G1 victory two years later in the Queen Elizabeth II Commemorative Cup with Kyoei Tap, which was just one out of eight graded titles he marked that season.

He steadily accumulated wins and reached a milestone of 1,000 career wins (JRA races alone) in 2000, 2,000 wins in 2009 and 2,500 wins in 2014. He was ranked within the top ten on JRA's national leaderboard between 1992 and 2012 and became the leader with 120 wins in 2010. He also won the JRA Award for Best Jockey (Winning Average) in 2010 and 2012 and earned the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries Award (Horseracing Achievement Awards) and the Japanese government's Medal of Honor with Yellow Ribbon for his outstanding decades of contribution to the horse racing circle in 2025.

Among the eight World Super Jockeys Series and the three World All-Star Jockeys he has participated in so far, he has taken home the title twice in 1995 and in 2009.

Date of Birth	: May 31, 2000
'26 Season Record	: 424 mounts, 73 wins / ¥ 1,310,182,000
Career Record	: 5,724 mounts, 672 wins
Recent Career Highlights	: '26 Unicorn Stakes (G3; Silver Ratio) '26 Mainichi Hai (G3; Altramuz) '25 Ireland Trophy (G2; Lavanda)
Participation in the WASJ	: 2nd

Mirai Iwata, who has been among the top ten on the national leaderboard every year since 2020, is currently second with 71 JRA wins including two graded titles. The 26-year-old will make his second appearance in the World All-Star Jockeys, having won the overall title in 2023 by marking one second and two thirds in four races, following in the footsteps of his father, who claimed the title in the 2005 World Super Jockeys Series.

Born in Hyogo Prefecture as the son of active jockey Yasunari Iwata, he enrolled in the JRA Horse Racing School in 2016. He then became an apprentice to trainer Hideaki Fujiwara and made his racing debut in 2019. He scored his first victory in his 36th start in March, rode his first G1 race in the Mile Championship (9th) in November and capped off his rookie season with 37 wins. In the following 2020 season, Iwata more than doubled his annual wins to 76, finishing ninth on the national leaderboard in just his second season, and further increased his wins to 88 in 2021, ranking sixth.

In 2022, Iwata claimed his much-awaited graded victory in his 98th grade-race attempt, the Kyoto Himba Stakes (G3) in February with Lotus Land, with whom he went on to finish second in the G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen the following month. He also reached his 100th seasonal win on December 24 that year at the age of 22 years, six months and 24 days, becoming the second youngest jockey to accomplish the feat after legendary Yutaka Take, and concluded the season with 103 wins to finish sixth again.

Iwata recorded three-digit wins once again in 2023 with 113 victories to finish fifth. Although the number fell to 89 in the following 2024 season, placing him eighth, he captured his first G1 title in the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies aboard Arma Veloce in his 61st attempt at that level. Last year, he again finished eighth with 95 wins including six graded titles, and marked three runner-up finishes at G1 level, the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) and the Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) aboard Arma Veloce and the Queen Elizabeth II Cup with Paradis Reine. He reached his 600th career JRA win on December 28.

In the NAR racing circuit, he has notched ten major titles including the 2022 JBC Ladies' Classic with Valle de la Luna and the 2025 Zen-Nippon Nisai Yushun with Pyromancer. Iwata also has overseas riding experiences, having ridden in France and the U.K. for two months in the summer of 2024 and 2025, respectively. During his stint in the U.K., he competed in the Shergar Cup where he contributed to his team's victory.

Yuga Kawada

'26 Season Record	: 243 mounts, 56 wins / ¥ 1,551,375,000
Career Record	: 13,332 mounts, 2,277 wins
Recent Career Highlights	: '26 Yayoi Sho Deep Impact Kinen (G2; Basse Terre) '26 American Jockey Club Cup (G2; Shohei) '25 Mile Championship (G1; Jantar Mantar)
Participation in the WASJ	: 8th

Now approaching 2,300 career wins in JRA races, Yuga Kawada continues to rank among the top jockeys this season. He stands fourth in the national rankings with 54 wins (JRA races alone) as of June 21 including five graded victories. While winless at G1 level, he has recorded two runner-up efforts in the February Stakes and the Victoria Mile, and a third-place finish in the Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby). A regular in the World All-Star Jockeys in recent years, the 40-year-old will bid for his second title, having claimed his first in 2019.

Born into a racing family—his father is a jockey-turned-trainer and his grandfather was a trainer at Saga Racecourse (NAR)—Kawada learned to ride at an early age and made his debut in March 2004. He registered his first win two weeks later at Hanshin Racecourse and concluded his first year with 16 wins. He continued to rack up wins over the following years and landed his first graded title in the 2006 Kokura Daishoten (G3).

His big break came in 2008, when he won his first G1 and classic title with Captain Thule in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas). He also landed five other graded victories and capped off the season with 73 wins. Kawada rose to ninth on the leaderboard with 83 wins in 2010 and reached triple figures for the first time with 109 victories in 2011 to rank third. Thereafter, he has consistently ranked within the top seven—he was second four times in 2013, 2019, 2020 and 2021 and claimed the top spot with 143 wins in 2022, in which he became the fourth Grand Prize winner by claiming all JRA Award Best Jockey titles for Races Won, Winning Average and Money Earned. He continued to enjoy success in 2023, sweeping the fillies' Triple Crown with Liberty Island and ranking second with 151 wins. He was second again with 141 wins in 2024 and sixth with 105 wins in 2025.

Kawada's other classic titles include; the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) with Big Week in 2010; the Yushun Himba with Gentildonna in 2012; the Oka Sho with Harp Star in 2014 and Stars on Earth in 2022; and the Tokyo Yushun with Makahiki in 2016, making him only the eighth jockey in history to claim all five classic races for three-year-old colts and fillies. Among his 30 career JRA-G1 titles are four Yasuda Kinen and Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes wins and two Takamatsunomiya Kinen, NHK Mile Cup and Sprinters Stakes victories. Kawada has also won three G1 races overseas, the Hong Kong Cup and the Breeders' Cup in 2021 with Loves Only You—the pair was the first to win the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf title for Japan—and the 2023 Dubai World Cup with Ushba Tesoro.
