Seven-year-old Muito Obrigado, though unable to improve his form after returning from a 10-month break in January this year, with two sevenths being his best performances out of six starts so far, he will attempt to regain his powerful late charge in his second Japan Cup challenge—he was eighth in 2019—at Tokyo racecourse where he has marked four wins and a second out of eight starts at 2,400 and 2,500-meter distances.

Marking a runner-up effort in his only start as a two-year-old on turf, the son of Rulership was raced over dirt throughout his three-year-old season, during which he broke his maiden in his kick-off start and marked two seconds, a third and two fourths out of his remaining seven starts.

Muito Obrigado was switched back to turf for his four-year-old campaign and landed his second win in his second start. After finishing eighth in the following Hanshin Daishoten, his first graded challenge, he marked three consecutive wins at Tokyo Racecourse over 2,400 meters—the Aoarashi Sho, the Machida Tokubetsu and the Rokusha, in which he won with the fastest closing speed in the first two and the third fastest in the last race. In the following Copa Republica Argentina where he was posted race favorite, he closed in on the leader with again the fastest late drive but was 3/4 length short in second.

Raced only at the graded level since, Muito Obrigado was unable to get good results during his five-year-old spring campaign which included an eighth in his first G1 challenge, the Osaka Hai, and a fifth in the Meguro Kinen. However, he came back fresh after a five-month summer break to register his first grade-race title in the Copa Republica Argentina. As second favorite, he hugged the rails in third and led the field after the 400-meter pole for a comfortable 1-1/4-length victory. In his first Japan Cup challenge that followed, the five-year-old settled behind eventual winner Suave Richard, found little room at the early stretch and failed to reach contention to finish eighth.

He kicked off the 2020 season with a fourth in the Hanshin Daishoten but was given the rest of his six-year-old season off due to health reasons.

Last year's Triple Crown winner Contrail has continued to prove deserving to be considered a strong candidate for the coming Japan Cup, following last year, in which the then three-year-old finished second behind the legendary Almond Eye while besting the rest of the field of senior G1 caliber. Although unable to race regularly this season—the Deep Impact colt finished third in his four-year-old debut, the Osaka Hai, in which he struggled with the strenuous heavy going while closing ground for the place from mid-division and had to take a long break thereafter to regain his condition—the talented colt bounced back against top G1 runners in the Tenno Sho (Autumn) in October, his second start of the season, gaining ground with the fastest finishing speed from a wide trip to out-finish all but the winner for second place.

The Deep Impact colt scored a comfortable 2-1/2-length victory in his September debut as a two-year-old and set a new course record in his next start, the Tokyo Sports Hai Nisai Stakes, while notching his first grade-race win by an overwhelming five-length margin. Sent to post favorite in the Hopeful Stakes, he extended his strides effortlessly from racing in fourth position, took command near the furlong pole and pulled away for a 1-1/2-length victory.

The 2019 Best Two-Year-Old Colt took advantage of an inside draw in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas), saving ground in mid-field behind a brisk pace, and outdueled Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes champion Salios and claimed the first leg of the Triple Crown. Race favorite again in the following Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby), Contrail did not disappoint, exploding into gear from a good position when asked and pulled away easily to a three-length victory. Coming off another comfortable win in his fall debut, the Kobe Shimbun Hai, he claimed the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger), adding his name in JRA history as the third undefeated Triple Crown winner although once again after a hard-fought battle with Aristoteles who stalked Contrail throughout the whole trip and continued to threaten along the homestretch while just missing by a neck at the wire. Although defeated for the first time in his career in the Japan Cup, Contrail did not fail to demonstrate his strength, quickly reaching contention from racing in mid-division (9th position) early and, while unable to match the winner, pinned down Glory Vase and Curren Bouquetd'or in the final strides and held off the strong challenge by Daring Tact for a 1-1/4-length second to Almond Eye.

Five-year-old Broome captured his first group-one title this year in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud where, as second favorite, he maintained unflagging speed throughout to mark a gate-to-wire one-length victory. Among the three starts that followed, he showed a good runner-up effort finishing 1-1/2 lengths behind Japan's Deep Bond in the Prix Foy but was heavily beaten in his Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe challenge. The Irish-bred bay is coming off his first trip to the U.S. to run in the Breeders' Cup Turf, in which as fifth choice, he made rapid headway rounding the final turns, took over the lead entering the stretch and ran gamely but was caught by Yibir who carried 1.5 kg less, in the final strides for a credible half-length second. With versatile racing tactics and favorable performances at 2,400 meters in left-handed races where he has turned in a win, a second and a fourth, Broome is hoped to give trainer Aidan O'Brien his first Japan Cup title.

In his second start of his two-year-old debut season, the son of Australia quickly recovered from a bad break and pulled away comfortably to a 1-1/2-length win. After a sixth and a second in his next group-race challenges, he registered a well-fought neck second in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere in which he set the pace, sustained the lead up to the furlong pole and gave way grudgingly to the winner while holding off the rest of the field.

Broome claimed his first group-race title in his first start of 2019, the Ballysax Stakes where, after trailing in the rear, made headway 600 meters out, easily stole the lead with 300 meters to go and was uncontested clearing the wire by an emphatic eight lengths. In the following Derby Trial Stakes, the then three-year-old accelerated to third after sitting second from the rear, switched to the outside 300 meters out and easily powered clear for a 2-1/2-length win. He registered a 3/4-length fourth in the Derby where he dug in strongly from the back but finished a distant sixth in the Irish Derby. Given a 12-month break, Broome turned in a fourth-place effort in his comeback start in the 2019 Coronation Cup and finished last in the British Champions Long Distance Cup.

Broome commenced this season back in form, immediately claiming the listed Devoy Stakes in which he cruised to a comfortable 3-1/2-length victory after swiftly taking over the lead passing the 400-meter marker. He extended his winning streak to three by claiming two group-race titles—in the Alleged Stakes, he picked off the frontrunners one by one in the stretch after sitting in mid-pack and closed powerfully to pin the runner-up at the wire for a 1/2-length win, then in the Mooresbridge Stakes, he stole the lead in the final furlong and held off rival Helvic Dream to win by two lengths. The tables were turned in the Tattersalls Gold Cup when Broome took command 400 meters out but was caught in the final furlong and outdueled by Helvic Dream this time to finish a short-head second. Another runner-up effort was seen in the following Hardwicke Stakes prior to his first G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud victory in July.

Three-year-old Shahryar won this year's Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) by outdueling Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) victor Efforia by a nose. Though succumbing to fourth due to soft going in his autumn kick-off start, the Kobe Shimbun Hai, the Derby winner will aim to become the first three-year-old colt to claim the Japan Cup since Rose Kingdom in 2010.

A full brother to 2017 Satsuki Sho champion, Al Ain, the dark bay won his debut start in October last year where he gradually advanced from mid-division and nailed the eventual runner-up before the wire with the fastest late kick for a neck victory. His first start of this season in February, the Kyodo News Hai, resulted in third where he sat four-wide in mid-division and showed good effort in the stretch but was unable to make ground, finishing 2/1/2-and-head behind Efforia and subsequent graded winner Victipharus. In the following Mainichi Hai in March, Shahryar traveled around fourth, quickened between horses after entering the lane to assume command 300 meters out and held off the strong late charge by Great Magician by a neck to claim his first graded title with a course record. The Deep Impact colt passed the Satsuki Sho in April to focus on the Derby.

In his first G1 challenge in the Tokyo Yushun, Shahryar broke smoothly and settled around seventh while eyeing race favorite Efforia on the inside. Though meeting traffic at the top of the stretch, he threaded between horses and, as soon as finding an open space, turned in an incredible turn of speed for a duel with Efforia in the last 100 meters to capture his first G1 title in just his fourth career start.

In his latest start, the Kobe Shimbun Hai, he was unable to show his usual late kick due to the soft track and finished five lengths behind the winner in fourth.

Seven-year-old Kiseki, while winless since claiming his Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) title in 2017, is turning in consistent performances this year, finishing within the top five in all his starts including a fourth in Hong Kong. In his latest start in the Kyoto Daishoten, the dark bay traveled wide in third, took command passing the 200-meter pole and, though overtaken by Makahiki and Aristoteles before the wire, showed tenacity to finish a nose and 1/2-length behind in third.

The son of Rulership won his only race as a two-year-old and, while unable to qualify for the first two legs of the Triple Crown, landed two consecutive wins in the summer before marking a runner-up effort in the Kobe Shimbun Hai, which secured him a berth in the Kikuka Sho. Posted race favorite in the last leg of the Triple Crown, Kiseki traveled wide in mid-division toward the rear, exploded powerfully into the homestretch and further accelerated after taking the front 200 meters out for a two-length victory. He concluded his three-year-old season with a ninth in the Hong Kong Vase.

Though below par in the first two starts of his four-year-old campaign, he improved his form coming into the fall season, finishing third in both the Mainichi Okan and the Tenno Sho (Autumn), and marked a runner-up effort in his first Japan Cup challenge, in which he set a rapid pace and maintained speed even after being overtaken by Almond Eye who renewed the race record. Kiseki continued to show steady performances in his five-year-old season with two G1 runner-up efforts in the Osaka Hai and the Takarazuka Kinen. After a third and a seventh in his challenge in France, he was fifth in the year-end Arima Kinen where he showed a belated charge after a poor break.

Kiseki registered his fourth runner-up effort at G1 level in the Takarazuka Kinen in his six-year-old season where the dark bay edged forward behind Chrono Genesis entering the lane and, while unable to keep up with the overwhelming speed of the winner, bested the rest of the field by five lengths. Marking another second in his autumn kick-off start, a drop in his performance could be seen in the following three G1 starts, which included a fifth in the Tenno Sho (Autumn) and an eighth in his second Japan Cup challenge, in which he set a rapid pace but was used up in the last 150 meters.

Five-year-old Grand Glory captured her first group-one victory in this year's Prix Jean Romanet in August. Partnered with jockey Cristian Demuro, the seventh pick ran near the rear and angled out for a stretch run where she won out a fierce duel with defending champion Audarya to cross the wire a short head in front. She then marked a runner-up effort in the Prix de l'Opera where she sat three-wide around eighth, circled wide and quickened to take a brief lead passing the 100-meter marker but was overtaken by Rougir at the wire to finish a nose second. In the coming Japan Cup, which will be her first overseas challenge, she will take advantage of her trademark late drive at Tokyo's long stretch to become the first foreign contender to claim the title in 16 years following Alkaased in 2005.

The daughter of Olympic Glory broke her maiden in her only start as a two-year-old in which she claimed a wire-to-wire victory by 3/4 length. After kicking off her three-year-old season with a second in the listed Prix Rose de Mai, she registered her second win in the Prix la Troienne by stretching well after trailing in the rear. She then headed for her first G1 challenge in the Prix de Diane where the lightly favored filly sat three-wide toward the rear and showed good effort to register a respectable third. She was, however, sidelined for close to a year due to health problems.

Grand Glory won her comeback and seasonal debut start of 2020, the Prix Zarkava, where she trailed in the rear, turned wide and delivered her strong late drive for a 1-3/4-length victory. After a second and a third in the next two G2 starts, she was unsuccessful in her following two G1 attempts, the Prix Vermeille and the Prix de l'Opera, but claimed her first group-race title in the Prix de Flore where she sat in the very rear, made headway with 800 meters to go and dueled strongly with the runner-up for a neck win. She capped off the season with a sixth in the Premio Lydia Tesio in Italy.

She commenced the current season with a second behind subsequent multiple-G1 winner Skalleti in the Prix Exbury before marking a sixth and a third in the following two G3 starts. She then claimed her second group-race victory in the Grand Prix de Vichy under Cristian Demuro where she was positioned in sixth among a six-horse field, accelerated after turning for home to take command 200 meters out and pulled away for a two-length win prior to claiming her first group-one title in the Prix Jean Romanet.

*Lemaire rode in France from 1999 prior to acquiring his JRA jockey's license in 2015.

Four-year-old Authority is coming off a handily scored back-to-back Copa Republica Argentina victory. The favorite sat around fourth, kicked into gear once in the straight, easily assumed command 300 meters out and romped to a 2-1/2-length victory. Among 10 career starts, the colt has registered 3-1-0 out of all four career starts at Tokyo Racecourse, all at graded level, and is entered as a strong candidate in the Japan Cup.

The son of Orfevre won his debut start in 2019 where the two-year-old took a wide trip in fourth, displayed a good turn of foot to take command at the furlong marker and withstood hard-charging Black Hole, subsequent graded winner, by a neck. He scored another win in the following Fuyo Stakes two months later in which, after settling in mid-field, he snatched the lead 200 meters out and ran up the hill with the fastest late speed for a convincing 2-1/2-length win. In the year-end Hopeful Stakes, which was his first G1 endeavor, the colt made headway after the third corner but failed to kick into gear in the stretch and was fifth.

He earned a berth to run in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) by finishing third in his first three-year-old start, the Yayoi Sho Deep Impact Kinen, but it was decided that he pass up the first leg of the Triple Crown and instead head for the Aoba Sho. In the Derby trial, the third favorite switched to the outside 400 meters out after running along the rails in around fifth and, with the fastest stretch speed, prevailed over a fierce four-horse rally by a neck. The colt was diagnosed with a fracture in his left foreleg after the race but made an impressive comeback in the Copa Republica Argentina six months later where he showed another good turn of foot after positioned third on the rails, despite breaking from the farthest stall, and stole the front 300 meters out for a 1-1/2-length victory in his first endeavor against older foes. He concluded the season with a dismal 14th in the Arima Kinen.

He kicked off the present season scoring a second in the Diamond Stakes where, posted favorite, he sat around fifth near the pace, inherited the lead passing the 400-meter pole but was beaten at the wire by the fast-closing winner who carried 2kg less. His stayer skills were tested once again over 3,000 meters against G1 caliber in the Tenno Sho (Spring) but failed to reach contention, finishing 10th, and was given a lengthy rest which proved fruitful by his latest Copa Republica Argentina victory.

Windjammer is coming off his fourth career win in the Kannazuki Stakes, run at a mile over dirt, where he traveled behind the pace before easily taking over the lead 300 meters out and cleared the wire a 1-1/2 length winner. The four-year-old gelding has been extremely consistent registering 4-7-4 out of 21 career starts on turf and dirt combined, missing the top five in only three outings, and has registered three out of four career wins this season. Although devoted to dirt racing for the past 16 months, the improving Kazuo Fujisawa-trained bay is set out to show his strength back on turf in his first graded attempt.

Making his debut on turf as a two-year-old, the son of Spielberg put in two runner-up efforts, one with the fastest last three-furlong drive, and marked a third and fourth in the last two starts of his first season. After heavily beaten to 11th in his three-year-old kick-off start in January the following year, Windjammer was gelded and resumed racing in May, scoring two thirds and a fourth before being switched to dirt races which proved promising as he immediately notched his first win. Sent off first choice, the gelding made headway rounding the final turns, entering the lane in third, and burst out in the final furlong with incredible speed for an overwhelming seven-length win. He then registered three runner-up efforts.

After commencing the current season with a third, the four-year-old followed with his second win where, sent off as heavy favorite, got the best of his rival over a fierce duel and won by a head. Following two second-place endeavors, he scored his third win in the Oume Tokubetsu where he pressed the pace in second, inherited the lead before the furlong pole and pulled away with good speed while holding off a strong challenge for a length win. He was beaten to 10th in his next start but bounced back well to claim the Kannazuki Stakes in October.

Four-year-old Aristoteles captured his first graded title in the kick-off start this season, the American Jockey Club Cup, where he settled around sixth over soft going, angled out for a stretch run and, after taking the lead 100 meters out, held off the strong challenges by his rivals to prevail by half a length. Though finishing a disappointing seventh in the following Hanshin Daishoten, he was fourth in the Tenno Sho (Spring) where he saved ground in sixth, rounded the last corners wide and, while no match for the eventual winner, accelerated strongly in the last 100 meters to finish a head behind third-place finisher Curren Bouquetd'or. After finishing an underwhelming ninth in the Takarazuka Kinen in June, he bounced back to form in his autumn kick-off start, the Kyoto Daishoten, where the favorite sat around fifth, swung to the outside after meeting traffic at the top of the stretch, outdueled Kiseki 100 meters out to assume the lead but was overtaken by Makahiki's tremendous late charge just before the wire to finish a nose behind in second. The son of 2014 Japan Cup winner, Epiphaneia, will aim for a father-and-son Japan Cup title in the coming race.

Aristoteles broke his maiden in his second start as a two-year-old where he displayed the fastest late drive for a 1-1/4-length win. However, he was ineligible to run in the spring classics as he was winless in his next four starts, though with three runner-up efforts. The bay marked his second win in the Izumozaki Tokubetsu in August of his three-year-old season where he hugged the rails in fifth and accelerated strongly in the stretch to take command passing the 200-meter pole for a comfortable 2-1/2-length victory.

He scored another win the following month in the Komaki Tokubetsu, in which he settled in third, made headway through the backstretch to take the lead, outdueled his rival in the stretch and pulled away in the last 100 meters for a 3/4-length win. Posted fourth favorite in the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger), the last leg of the Triple Crown, Aristoteles traveled in mid-division outside odds-on favorite Contrail, dueled strongly with the Deep Impact colt to the wire with tremendous speed and, though unable to wear down the winner, finished a well-deserved second in his first G1 attempt.

Five-year-old Lord My Way, while below par this season and winless since his first graded victory in the G3 Challenge Cup in 2019, finished a respectable fifth in the G2 Kyoto Daishoten in October where he settled fourth from last, ran persistently in the stretch and, while no match for the top three graded runners—Makahiki, Aristoteles and Kiseki—came in a neck behind the fourth-place finisher and 0.3 seconds from the winner. Though coming off a 13th in the Copa Republica Argentina, he is hoped to capture his first G1 title in the coming Japan Cup in which his sire Just a Way was second to Epiphaneia in 2014.

Lord My Way broke his maiden in his second start as a two-year-old and scored a win and two fourths out of three starts in his debut season. After marking a sixth and a nose second in his first two starts as a three-year-old, he showed rapid improvement, registering five consecutive wins which included the listed Port Island Stakes and his first graded victory in the G3 Challenge Cup—in the former, the race favorite settled in third, took command after entering the lane and maintained the lead to the wire by holding off the strong challenges of the pursuing rivals for a head win while in the latter, the second favorite traveled around fourth from the rear, advanced rounding the last corners wide and exerted the fastest closing speed in the lane, passing his rivals one by one and nailing the front before the wire for a head victory.

His four-year-old season, however, started with a tenth in the G2 Kinko Sho and his first G1 challenge in the following Osaka Hai against multiple G1 winners resulted in a disappointing 12th as the bay broke poorly, forcing him to travel in the very rear and hampering him from displaying his late kick. Though unable to defend his title in the Port Island Stakes after a six-month break, Lord My Way concluded the season with a runner-up effort in the Capital Stakes where he traveled second from the rear and dislodged a powerful late drive that timed the fastest last three furlongs to finish a length behind the winner.

Marking two-digit finishes in his first two G3 starts this season, the five-year-old bay bounced back in the following listed Osaka Jo Stakes where he traveled in 10th and closed in on the leaders with the fastest late drive to finish a length-neck-neck behind the winner in fourth.

Five-year-old mare Shadow Diva is coming off her first graded victory and third-career win in the Fuchu Himba Stakes. The fourth pick sat towards the rear, switched to the outside at the top of the lane and, with the fastest last-three-furlong speed, pinned the leader just before the wire for a neck win. She is 2-5-2 out of 12 starts at Tokyo Racecourse and will strive to land her first G1 title in her first Japan Cup bid.

The daughter of Heart's Cry broke her maiden in her third start of her two-year-old season in which, posted as first choice, she traveled in fourth, weaved her way out of traffic in early stretch to take command 300 meters out and drew clear for a comfortable four-length win. After marking a third and fourth in her first two outings as a three-year-old, she earned her ticket to run in the Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) by putting in a runner-up effort in the Flora Stakes where she was beaten by a nose at the wire. In the second jewel of the fillies' Triple Crown, Shadow Diva was sixth by 0.5 second behind subsequent Hong Kong's Queen Elizabeth II Cup and Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf victor Loves Only You.

Following a tedious ninth in her autumn kick off start, the filly headed for the Shuka Sho where she overcame traffic in early stretch after saving ground near the rear and accelerated well to finish fourth, four lengths behind winner Chrono Genesis. She was then heavily defeated in her first endeavor against older rivals in the Queen Elizabeth II Cup but concluded her three-year-old campaign with her second career win in the Joso Stakes in which she saved ground in fourth, circled wide into the straight before taking the front at the furlong pole and held off a strong bid from the runner-up by a neck.

Although winless last year, the four-year-old turned in runner-up efforts in the Tokyo Shimbun Hai and the Fuchu Himba Stakes which in the latter, she was second to subsequent Arima Kinen runner-up Salacia while keeping Loves Only You at bay by two lengths. In her five starts this season, Shadow Diva has marked third-place finishes in two G3 starts and is on a high note coming off her first win in two years in the G2 Fuchu Himba Stakes.

Sanrei Pocket claimed his first graded victory in his fourth start this year, the G3 Niigata Daishoten, in which he saved ground in 11th, advanced to reach contention, took over the lead by the furlong pole and shook off the favorite Potager for a neck win. He also registered a close fourth in his previous start and first G1 challenge, the Tenno Sho (Autumn), where he improved position near the rails in the backstretch and responded well behind the top three favorites. Though slow to reach graded level due to a setback earlier in his career, the six-year-old continues to show improvement in his performances and his record of 4-2-2 out of 14 left-handed races is a favorable factor in his second G1 challenge.

Sired by 2001 Derby and Japan Cup winner Jungle Pocket, Sanrei Pocket debuted at the age of three and notched his first win in his second start where he launched the fastest late drive from near the rear for a two-length win. The colt was then sidelined for 16 months with a fractured pelvis sustained during his fourth start, but made an impressive comeback in his fourth start in 2019, the Sakae Tokubetsu, in which he settled three-wide in around 13th and displayed the fastest late kick to land a 3/4-length victory.

In the Chukyo Sponichi Sho, his second start of 2020, Sanrei Pocket made a late bid from running near the rear and quickened between horses while exerting the fastest stretch drive to win by a nose. He then handled the added distance well in his first challenge at 2,400-meters in the June Stakes at Tokyo where, on soft going, he steadily accelerated turning into the straight from mid-division, gained on the frontrunners tenaciously and finally snatched the win from the leader at the wire by a neck. He turned in two credible thirds in his first two grade-race starts, the Niigata Kinen and the Mainichi Okan, the latter in which he was three lengths to winner and 2019 Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes victor Salios. He capped off the season with a sixth in the Copa Republica Argentina.

After a fourth in his 2021 kick-off start, the Nikkei Shinshun Hai, Sanrei Pocket was sent off second choice in the listed Shirafuji Stakes in which, after breaking from the widest stall and sitting in the rear, he closed with the fastest stretch speed but was a neck short to Potager for second.

Five-year-old Mozu Bello finished second in the Osaka Hai, his third start of this year, in which the sixth favorite gradually made headway after traveling fourth from last just off the rails, turned wide for a clear stretch run and demonstrated an impressive turn of speed to outrun both Contrail and Gran Alegria while unable to threaten Lei Papale. Though below form in his latest three starts with an eighth in the Takarazuka Kinen being his best performance, the bay will aim to capture his first G1 title in the coming Japan Cup run over 2,400 meters, a distance at which he has won two out of three starts with the fastest last three furlongs.

Sired by 2012 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) winner, Deep Brillante, Mozu Bello debuted in January of his three-year-old season and broke his maiden in his second start. However, failing to perform well in his next two starts, finishing fifth and ninth, he was unable to earn his berth in the first two legs of the Triple Crown. He bounced back to form to register his second win in July but finished a disappointing 17th in the following St. Lite Kinen, which hindered him again from racing in the last leg of the Triple Crown, the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger). He added another victory in the Takao Tokubetsu with the fastest late drive for a three-length win and capped off his three-year-old season with a close fourth in the Grateful Stakes.

Mozu Bello kicked off his four-year-old season with his first graded win in the Nikkei Shinshun Hai where he carried the third lightest weight of 52.0kg and was posted second favorite. He hugged the rails around fifth, angled out for the stretch run and took command 200 meters out to win by 2-1/2 lengths, again with the fastest late speed. In the following Nikkei Sho, the bay saved ground around 10th and, while checked at the stretch, showed effort to register a 1-1/4-length second.

While his first G1 challenge in the Tenno Sho (Spring) resulted in seventh, he landed a well-fought third in the spring “All-Star” Takarazuka Kinen, in which the 12th pick traveled wide behind Chrono Genesis in mid-division and rallied for third place while unable to match the winner and runner-up Kiseki. After having sustained an external injury in late September, he made his comeback in the year-end Arima Kinen but finished a disappointing 15th.

*Demuro rode in Italy from 1994 prior to acquiring his JRA jockey's license in 2015.

Uberleben claimed this year's Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) after running wide in mid-pack, steadily gaining on the tiring leaders at the straight and pulling away in the last furlong with a strong finishing drive to win by a length. While finishing a disappointing 13th in her next and latest start, Uberleben is looking to regain her form and become the third three-year-old filly to claim the Japan Cup after Gentildonna in 2012 and Almond Eye in 2018.

The Gold Ship filly was sent off fourth pick in her debut start last June where she steadily made headway in the backstretch and responded well on soft going to steal the win by a nose. In the following Sapporo Nisai Stakes, she closed strongly from the far rear, threatening winner Sodashi who won in record time but just missing by a neck in second. After marking a ninth in the Artemis Stakes that followed, the filly showed the fastest closing speed from running near the rear and dug in well to notch a nose-and-neck third in the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies behind rivals Sodashi and Satono Reinas.

Suffering from colic in February this season, Uberleben was forced to alter her schedule and run in the Flower Cup two weeks after her initially planned start (the Tulip Sho). The race favorite traveled three-wide in the latter half of the field and timed the second fastest finish but was third to cross the wire. The brown filly then passed up the first leg of the fillies' Triple Crown, the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas), and headed for the Yushun Himba trial, the Flora Stakes, in which she launched her trademark late kick which was the fastest in the field but finished third.

After her Yushun Himba victory in May, she was diagnosed with a minor tendon injury and was given a five-month break before her autumn comeback, the Shuka Sho, in which the fifth favorite was settled in her familiar rearward position but failed to fire in the stretch and finished 13th.

Makahiki claimed his long-awaited victory in this autumn's Kyoto Daishoten, his first win in five years. After producing mundane results in his only two starts last season, the eight-year-old bounced back and proved his competency in his second start this year. As ninth pick, the bay hit the straight in mid-pack, struggled for room but burst out with a tremendous turn of foot in the last 100 meters and caught favorite Aristoteles at the wire to win by a nose. The 2016 Derby winner will aim for the Japan Cup title in his fourth bid.

The son of Deep Impact immediately broke his maiden in his one and only start as a two-year-old and landed back-to-back wins in his first two starts the following season which included his first grade-race victory in the G2 Yayoi Sho. He ran the fastest last three furlongs from a rear spot in his classics challenge, the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas), but was 1-1/4 lengths short in second. In the Tokyo Yushun, the bay colt was more forwardly positioned in mid-field this time and exploded in the last furlong, holding off the fast-closing Satono Diamond by a nose to capture the Derby title. Then sent to France, Makahiki prevailed by a neck in a three-horse rally to claim the G2 Prix Niel but was beaten to 14th in the following Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and sat out the rest of season.

In his four-year-old campaign, Makahiki notched a third in the G2 Kyoto Kinen and, although winless, continued to show consistent results, finishing within the top five in all three G1 starts. In his first Japan Cup challenge, he saved ground in mid-division and was bumped in early stretch but showed a good late drive to finish fourth. He was sidelined for more than eight months with a fracture in his left hind leg sustained after the Japan Cup, but made a remarkable comeback the following summer in the Sapporo Kinen, finishing a nose second. Unable to stay in form, he concluded the 2018 season with mediocre results in the Tenno Sho (Autumn) and the Arima Kinen.

Makahiki kicked off his six-year-old season, marking a close third and fourth in the 2019 Kyoto Kinen and the Osaka Hai, respectively, the latter in which he was the fastest in the last three furlongs. Although beaten to double-digit finishes in his next two G1 starts, he bounced back in his second Japan Cup challenge where the 12th pick, after positioned in the rear, displayed the fastest late drive to reach contention and finished fourth.

You Can Smile commenced the current season seeking to defend his Hanshin Daishoten title but finished second behind subsequent Prix Foy victor Deep Bond by five lengths. The six-year-old made headway after the third corner from saving ground in second from last and exerted the fastest late drive holding off strong challenges from behind while no threat to the winner. Low key performances followed in his next three starts, sixth place being the best outcome, but the son of King Kamehameha is hoped to better his past Japan Cup finishes in 2019 and 2020 in which he was fifth and 12th, respectively.

After marking two seconds as a two-year-old, You Can Smile kicked off his three-year-old season with two wins but was sixth in both of his next two graded challenges and was ineligible to run in the spring classics. Following his third win in the Aganogawa Tokubetsu against older caliber, he went on to turn in a promising third in the Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) in which the lightly favored colt closed strongly from sitting in mid-pack, tying the fastest last-three-furlong run.

Tests of his stayer talent continued into his four-year-old season. You Can Smile was sent off first choice in the Diamond Stakes in Tokyo in which he saved ground near the rear, weaved his way to the front by the furlong pole and stretched impressively to claim his first graded victory by a comfortable 2-1/2-lengths, before landing a fifth in the Tenno Sho (Spring). The bay also demonstrated his versatility at middle distances when claiming his second graded title in the 2,000-meter Niigata Kinen. The second pick took an economic trip in mid-division and, with the tied fastest late kick, held off a fast-closing rival by a neck. He also showed consistent performances at G1 level, finishing fourth with the fastest stretch drive in the Tenno Sho (Autumn) and fifth in the Japan Cup.

The five-year-old kicked off the 2020 season notching his third graded title, the Hanshin Daishoten, in which he accelerated from a rearward spot, squeezed through a gap in early stretch and, with the fastest late speed, took over the lead at the furlong pole to pull away strongly for a 1-3/4-length win. In the following Tenno Sho (Spring), he ran gamely to reach contention from running in sixth but gave way in the last half furlong while finishing 0.4-second fourth. Following another fourth in his fall comeback, You Can Smile was beaten to double-digit finishes in his next two G1 starts.

*Tosaki rode in regional public racing from 1998 prior to acquiring his JRA jockey's license in 2013.

2018 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) victor Wagnerian registered a 3-3/4-length fifth in the Kyoto Kinen in February this year as a comeback start from an eight-month layoff. Twelfth in the following Osaka Hai, the six-year-old bay showed a tenacious effort in the last furlong of his first mile challenge, the Fuji Stakes, in which he was sixth. He hopes to claim his second career G1 title in his second Japan Cup bid at Tokyo's 2,400-meter course where he has a win and a third in two G1 starts.

The son of Deep Impact won all three starts as a two-year-old, the last being the Tokyo Sports Hai Nisai Stakes where the race favorite unleashed the fastest late drive to land a comfortable three-length win. Coming off a second in the Yayoi Sho the following season, Wagnerian was posted race favorite in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) but failed to display his trademark late charge and was seventh. In the Tokyo Yushun, the fifth-favored colt was forwardly positioned despite a wide draw and gained on the leaders in the last furlong, overhauling Satsuki Sho winner Epoca d'Oro in the last 50 meters to capture the title by half a length. He went on to claim his autumn kick-off start in the Kobe Shimbun Hai, where he exerted the second fastest late drive for a 1/2-length win. Unable to recover from his effort, his connections decided to give him the rest of the season off.

Rested from a six-month break, Wagnerian kicked off his four-year-old season in the Osaka Hai in which he was rated in mid-field along the rails before following the eventual winner into the straight and heavily threatened the first two but finished a close third. Given time to further mature, his next start was in August in the Sapporo Kinen where he fared well to finish a close fourth in spite of losing both front shoes. After finishing fifth in the Tenno Sho (Autumn), he sat in sixth and unleashed a furious charge but had too much ground to make up and crossed the wire 2-1/4-length third in his first Japan Cup.

Wagenerian commenced the 2020 season with a fifth in the Osaka Hai in which he sat in around fifth and, in spite of finding himself in tight quarters and shuffled back turning the last two corners, accelerated well with the third fastest late kick. After heavily defeated to 13th in the Takarazuka Kinen, the five-year-old underwent wind surgery and was given the remainder of the season to recover.

Ireland's Japan claimed two group-race wins earlier this year before making his first overseas campaign to the U.S. where he started in three G1 races. In the Sword Dancer Stakes, the five-year-old saved ground in mid-field, overcame traffic in early stretch and, with tremendous speed, closed in on winner Gufo but was a neck short in second. Following a sixth in the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Stakes, he was a 3-1/2-length fourth in the Breeders' Cup Turf where he gradually advanced from a mid-pack seat but was checked after the final turn. Adaptable to various distances, collecting wins between 1,400 and 2,680 meters, and with a record of 5-1-2 running counter clock-wise, the Aidan O'Brian-trained horse will be put under the spotlight in the country he is named after.

The son of Galileo won two of his three races as a two-year-old which included his first group-race title in the Beresford Stakes where, sent off third choice, he uncoiled a strong stretch drive to pin the leader in the last strides, winning by a short head. In his second start of his three-year-old campaign, Japan dug in from behind to close in on the leaders and finished a close third to stablemate Anthony Van Dyck in the Derby. His second group-race title was registered in the King Edward VII Stakes where he sat second from the rear, circled wide into the straight and powered clear for a four-length victory.

Sent off race favorite in the Grand Prix de Paris, the three-year-old settled in third, took over the lead 300 meters out and held off all pursuers by 1/2 length to capture his first G1 victory. He stretched his winning streak to three with another G1 triumph in the International Stakes against older foes where, after sitting not far from the pace in fourth, he unleashed a strong bid and battled stride for stride with Crystal Ocean in the last furlong, poking his head in front at the wire, for the win. In the following Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the Galileo colt settled wide towards the rear and advanced well to fight briefly for the lead, remaining a factor 300 meters out, but weakened to fourth.

In 2020, Japan was winless in his five starts, all at group-one level, and produced poor results in four but marked a head-third behind runner-up Enable in the Eclipse Stakes which was his best seasonal effort. However, he proved himself back in form from the beginning of the current season, immediately claiming the Ormonde Stakes in May, in which he ran the rails in second or third, led from 200 meters out and held off subsequent two-time G1 winner Trueshan by 3/4 length. Before heading for North America, he also claimed the Meld Stakes where he chased the leaders in third, inherited the lead at the furlong pole and held on well for a short-head win.
